

Eschatology in the Old Testament:

| Scriptures to Consider  | OT thing hoped for | Additional notes |
|---|--------------------|------------------|
| Deut. 18:15, Ps. 110:4, Zech. 9:9, Is. 52:13-53:12                |                    |                  |
| Psalms 93; 95-99; Dan. 2:44-45; 7; Isaiah 24-27; Obadiah 21       |                    |                  |
| Jer. 31:31-34  |                    |                  |
| Ezekiel 36ff, especially verses 8-15, 24-36; Isaiah 35; 54-55; 61 |                    |                  |
| Joel 2:28-29; Ezek. 36:27; 39:29; Is. 32:15; 44:3                 |                    |                  |
| Is. 13:6-16; Zeph. 1; 3:9-20; Joel 2:32; Obadiah 15-21; Malachi 4 |                    |                  |
| Gen. 3:17-18; Is. 11:6-9; 32:15; 35:1-7; 65:17; 66:22             |                    |                  |

Remember the letter Phil Sutton sent out? It said, how might you frame the entirety of the Bible in a short time? He offered the following approach:

1. Creation
2. The Fall
3. Redemption
4. Restoration

How does what we just learned from Eschatology in the Old Testament fit into Phil's approach? Which of Phil's four suggestions are we focusing on?