Eschatology in the Old Testament:

OT Scriptures to Consider	OT thing hoped for	Additional notes
Deut. 18:15, Ps. 110:4, Zech. 9:9, Is. 52:13-53:12	1. Future Redeemer	Prophet, priest, and king... whose suffering atones for sin
2 Samuel 7:12-17; Psalm 93:1-2; 95-99; Dan. 2:44; 7 ; Isaiah 24-27; Obadiah 21; Isaiah 2 (mountain of God)	2. Eschatological kingdom of God	God's reign becomes a reality experienced by all nations whether in judgement or salvation
Jer. 31:31-34	3. new covenant ¹	forgiveness of sins
Ezekiel 36ff, especially verses 8-15, 24-36; Isaiah 35; 54-55; 61	4. restoration of Israel	God would restore His repentant, believing, and purified people
Joel 2:28-29; Ezek. 36:27; 39:29; Is. 32:15; 44:3	5. outpouring of the Spirit
Is. 13:6-16; Zeph. 1; 3:9-20; Joel 2:32; Obadiah 15-21; Malachi 4	6. day of the Lord	Judgement of wicked; salvation for believers
Gen. 3:17-18; Is. 11:6-9; 32:15; 35:1-7; 65:17; 66:22	7. new heavens and the new earth.	From curse of earth (Gen. 3:17-18) to redemption: 1. No violence with animals (Is. 11) 2. Wilderness = fruitful (Is. 32:15; 35) 3. Old past; new remembered

Remember the letter Phil Sutton sent out? It said, how might you frame the entirety of the Bible in a short time? He offered the following approach:

1. Creation
2. The Fall
3. Redemption
4. Restoration

How does what we just learned from Eschatology in the Old Testament fit into Phil's approach? Which of Phil's four suggestions are we focusing on?
